That the lease of the premises occupied by him expires early in 1870 he would like to settle it if convenient the terms on which he can renew the lease for 5 years longer. At present he pays $1200. per annum of which the Post-Office assumes $500. leaving his share of the whole $700. a year. Asking as to whether this sum can be fixed on as the rent of the next 4 years. Desirous of settling this question as his proposed arrangement of disposing of his printing stock & paper, depends entirely on the lease of the premises. That half of his printing building was erected at his own expenses belongs to him & the other half of it reverts to the Crown. That he proposes to allow Messrs. Black & Auld
